Washington Park was a lively place yesterday, reminding one of the good old days before the players and the club owners made their fight for spoils. Over 6,000 people were present, and the enthusiasm was of the most contagious kind. The game was between the Brooklyn and Cincinnati League teams, and the Bridegrooms won after a hot contested fight.

As the lead in the League race depended upon the result of the game each management put its strongest team and a battle royal was anticipated. The feeling of rivalry existing between the two clubs extended to unusual value. The Brooklyn men really outplayed their opponents and winning rather easily, took a firm grip on first place. The Bridegrooms will be hard to dislodge.

The Cincinnati scored a run in the opening inning and held this advantage to the fourth. In this inning Burns hit a ball into left for a base. Fouts sent a ground out to right. Terry bunted to Rhines, who retired Burns at third. Donovan rolled a grounder to May, and was quickly thrown out. Fouts scoring. Terry also attempted to score, but the umpire was standing near the base line right in to way. Bill Herlihy threw the ball quickly in from field to Harrington.

Terry fell over the empire and was about to score when Harrington touched him with the ball. The empire did not get away, however, when the Cincinnati refused to play further. The empire then took out his bat and announced that he would give the Cincinnati five minutes in which to proceed.

In the meantime the crowd joined in the discussion and pandemonium reigned. At the expiration of the five minutes, the Cincinnati refused to play, the empire gave the Brooklyn the game—nothing to nothing. The Brooklyn then endeavored to induce the Cincinnati to play the postponed game of May 20, but the latter said no. It was decided to play the regular game. The Brooklyn consented to waive their claim to Terry's run. Terry was declared out at the plate instead of having scored a run.

The trouble was directly caused by Smith's ready reaching trick. Smith can in from third base just ahead of Terry. The empire saw him coming and dodged, only to run against Terry, who was following immediately in Smith's wake. Smith should be reprimanded for such work.

In the fifth inning the Brooklyn men began to gauge Burns' curves, and the remainder of the voyage was gay sailing. The score was as follows:

McPherson, 2 h., 0 0 3 1. Collins, 2 b., 0 1 1 4.
